

AS SEEN IN FOOD & WINE

2021
DRY CHENIN BLANC
Clarksburg

“For many years now, the winery has used grapes from Clarksburg for the wine; the result is a crisp, peachy white that’s also a stellar value.”

FEBRUARY 2023

What Ray’s Pouring Now Executive Wine Editor Ray Isle’s favorite things to drink this month

2021 DRY CREEK VINEYARD DRY CHENIN BLANC ($16)

Dry Creek’s founder David S. Stare fell in love with Loire Valley Chenin Blanc—specifically the wines of Vouvray—at a time when everyone in California was ripping out the variety. For many years now, the winery has used grapes from Clarksburg for the wine; the result is a crisp, peachy white that’s also a stellar value.

